Are you kidding me - this one has even shocked me. This is what dreams are made of.

This three year young property has been lovingly cared for by its owners with so many features that most buyers are looking for.

Appealing from the front, a grand entry, two spacious living areas (separate formal lounge and a large family room) that adjoins the well-appointed kitchen with that wow factor - loads of cupboard and bench space with breakfast bar, gas cooking hob that will appeal to any budding chef.

A large family/dining area that flows effortlessly out to the patio/entertainment area - just perfect for that late afternoon wine or beer or alfresco dining with friends and family...
