If you're looking for a fantastic opportunity to secure a brick and tile three bedroom home that you can still add your personal touches to, your search ends here!

With a great layout this home includes an open living and dining area complete with split system air conditioning. Fully tiled throughout this home also has additional living space that can be used as a rumpus room, toy room or even a great home office space.

Located in a quiet well established area you're just minutes from all that Hervey Bay has to offer, complete with plenty of off street parking with a large driveway and a double length car port. Three garden sheds means plenty of room for storage and a small water tank to keep your garden alive. ... Sitting on a low maintenance 623m2 fully fenced block it is perfect for first home buyers, downsizers, investors or avid renovators and will...
